

Fifteen students graduate in hospitality management

Our Correspondent
Muscat

Fifteen students, who had completed their advanced diploma course at the Colombo Academy of Hospitality Management in Sri Lanka, had their graduation ceremony at OCCI hall recently.

The students completed a two-year course. The function was hosted by leading corporate house, Renaissance.

Mohammed Salim al Hajri was selected as the best student in hospitality operations and finance management while Ahad al Jabri was recognised as most outstanding graduate.

In his address, Steven Bradie-Miles, CEO of Colombo Academy of Hospitality Management, exhorted student to be more independent in their future assignments.

"Future of Oman depends on how many Omani youths are employed and how productive they are. Today, it is the beginning in the professional life of new graduates," noted Stephen Thomas, CEO, Renaissance.